Helpful information

Where's the Statehouse? The Indiana Statehouse's official address is 200 W. Washington Street, Indianapolis, IN. It is at the northwest corner of Capitol and Washington Streets.

How do I get in? The main entrance is on the Capitol Street side across from Market Street. Handicap entrance -
- An ADA accessible entrance is on the west side of the building via the Robert D. Orr Plaza.

Where do I park? Parking is always challenging during the legislative session. The Circle Centre Mall a few blocks away has parking garages at reasonable rates. Street parking is available at metered spots that accept credit cards. The IndyGo RedLine bus stops right in front of the Statehouse.

Screening - All visitors are screened by metal detectors. Bags and packages will be screened using X-ray equipment. Allow enough time to be screened before the rally.

Signs - We will have some signs available, but feel free to bring your own hand-held messages. You may not attach a banner or sign to the building or grounds. Hand-held signs cannot be attached to sticks or similar objects. (We recommend a half-sheet of poster board for signs because they fit through the X-ray machine.)

Prohibited items - helium balloons, smoking, firearms, pocket knives, animals (other than service animals)

Behavior - It is ok to be enthusiastic, but rally participants must not be rude or disorderly.
