

ICPE Day of Action - Helpful information

LOCATION - Where's the Statehouse? The Indiana Statehouse's official address is 200 W. Washington Street, Indianapolis, IN. It is at the northwest corner of Capitol and Washington Streets. Budget time to park and walk to the Statehouse. Look at a map to know exactly where you are going.

PARKING - There are several parking garages nearby - plan ahead!

The Circle Centre Mall a few blocks away has parking garages at reasonable rates.

The IndyGo RedLine bus stops right in front of the Statehouse.

Street parking is available at metered spots that accept credit cards.

The ParkMobile app is an easy way to pay for parking at meters in downtown Indianapolis. Simply download the app and enter some information, including your license plate number and card number. If you do use meter parking, you will want to select the maximum time allowed on the meter and know that you may have to leave to feed it (or risk getting a ticket) if the app is not an option for you.

ENTRANCES - Enter the Statehouse from the public entrances on the east or west sides. You will have to go through security with a metal detector. Budget time to go through security. The time this takes depends on how many people are in line.

The main entrance is on Capitol Street (east side) across from Market Street.

An ADA accessible entrance is on the west side of the building via the Robert D. Orr Plaza.

SECURITY SCREENING - All visitors are screened by metal detectors. Bags and packages will be screened using X-ray equipment. Allow enough time to be screened before the event.

SIGNS - We will have some signs available, but feel free to bring your own hand-held messages. You may not attach a banner or sign to the building or grounds. Hand-held signs cannot be attached to sticks or similar objects. (We recommend a half-sheet of poster board for signs because they fit through the X-ray machine.)

PROHIBITED ITEMS - helium balloons, smoking, firearms, pocket knives, animals (other than service animals)

BEHAVIOR - It is ok to be enthusiastic, but event participants must not be rude or disorderly.
